

11th Annual Moku O Keawe International Festival Market Place

Sept. 8, 2016

Aloha Artists and Vendors,

It's that time of year for the 11th Annual Moku O Keawe International Festival Market Place which will be held on Friday and Saturday, November 4 & 5, 2016. Once again, the festival will be held at the Hilton Waikoloa Village in Waikoloa on the Big Island. Vendor spaces will be located in the Grand Promenade outside the Grand Ballroom. It is a covered area to protect you from the sun and rain. Like previous years, you must setup and breakdown each day. We will be providing a storage room located by the Grand Promenade where you can store your goods overnight. The Moku O Keawe Hula Festival workshops and hula competitions will take place in the Grand Ballroom where the marketplace will be located.

The Market Place will consist of hand-picked vendors and artists showcasing Hawaiian themed art and products of high quality and craftsmanship, with cultural significance to Hawaiian culture and the hula. We encourage the producer artist to share their mana'o about their work or products, even demonstrating if possible.

We will have up to 50 table spaces available. Each space comes with one 6' draped table and 2 chairs. All items will be screened and if you are a new vendor or a returning vendor with added new products you must submit photos or a web site. All products must be made in Hawai'i - No imports allowed. Preference will be given to returning vendors. If you are not accepted as a vendor, your check will be returned to you.

No posted dated checks will be accepted and there will be a $ 25 service charge on returned checks.
